NEWS AROUND TOWN

By Mrs. Calvin Robinson

I liked this one:

"Do you," the judge asked the groom, "take this woman for better or for worse, through sickness and health, in good times or bad, whether she be....."

"Oh, judge," broke in the bride, tearfully, "you're going to talk him right out of it."

J. F. Arthurs, Jr., Spout Spring, was in our office Saturday, and was looking at Father Darkleaf's collection of match covers. Mr. Arthurs invited us up to see his collection of same—he has 1,200.

It sez here — a farmer had both cows and chickens on his barnyard. Little Susie came in and reported that she had counted 138 legs, but only 53 heads. Question: How many cows and how many chickens. Answer at bottom of column.

On a recent Sunday, it was our very great pleasure to visit the attractive vacation cottage of Mr. and Mrs. David T. Robertson, on Buggs Island Lake. A friend of theirs took us on a long lake ride in his new cruiser, and then we motored up to Clarksville and saw the wonderful collection of Indian relics belonging to Judge John Tisdale, Mecklenburg County Judge. We have a modest few hundred Indian arrowheads, but Judge Tisdale has 20,000, believe it or not! He has a lodge which features an incredible array of Arrowheads and other Indian relics attached to the upper walls. Most of his collection came from the Buggs Island area. Father Darkleaf and Sheriff Robertson set up plans for an expedition of their own to seek arrowheads in that area, but so far the opportunity has not presented itself.

We have a strip of black plastic about 30 inches wide and fifteen feet wide stretched across a part of our flower garden. We bought it to try to control weeds and crabgrass. The claim is that nothing green will live without sunlight, and this black plastic cover keeps out the sunlight! If this works, it will be a lazy person's way of keeping down the weeds!

At the meeting of the Kirkwood Otey Chapter, UDC, in Lynchburg this week, Miss Lutie Jennings gave an original photograph of "Gen. Robert E. Lee and Traveller," made by A. H. Plecker, to the chapter, to be placed in the McLean House at Appomattox.

Pvt. Harold C. Wingfield, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Wingfield, of Richmond, formerly of Appomattox, is stationed in Labrador. I am sure he would appreciate his friends sending him a note. His address: Pvt. Harold C. Wingfield, U. S. 32416656; Det. 2 TTC-7278; 19th TRK Co., A. P. O. 677, Care Postmaster, New York, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank McCann and children, Mike, Jim and Nancy, spent the week-end of May 25th in Lexington with Mrs. McCann's father, Vice-Admiral E. W. Clexton. They attended the wedding of Mrs. McCann's sister, Zita Clexton, to Lt Wayne A. Sweet, US Air Force. The wedding was an event of May 25.

"I ache all over," a man complained. "What's the trouble?" his companion inquired sympathetically. "A couple of weeks ago we bought a lot of ultra modernistic furniture," he explained, "and I've just found that all this time I've been sleeping in the bookcase."
—American Eagle.

Answer to puzzle: It sez here—16 cows and 37 chickens.

Canning Hints

Canning time is here again. The canning methods recommended below have been thoroughly tested in thousands of homes. You save time, effort and disappointment by eliminating failure.

1. Use home canning jars suitable for sealing with the caps to be used.

2. Learn to follow the manufacturer's instructions for using the caps. (They are not the same for all brands).

3. Use strictly fresh sound produce and use it when it is at the right stage for canning. Not overripe nor underripe.

4. Be sure all parts of steam pressure canner are in perfect working order. The kettle and cover of a good canner will last a lifetime, but the gage or some other small part may wear out.

5. Get organized to do the job before starting it.

6. If it is necessary to can a large amount in one day, spread the produce where it will be well ventilated and reasonably cool.

7. Wash and drain things to be canned before cutting or breaking the skin.

8. Pack jars "comfortably tight" —that is, don't waste space, but do leave enough for liquid to circulate between pieces.

9. Avoid wasting time between steps in preparing food for canning, packing it into jars and processing. Produce, particularly vegetables, which is kept waiting too long for processing is likely to spoil.

10. Use boiling water bath canner for processing fruits, juices and tomatoes. Use steam pressure canner for processing all low-acid foods.

11. Use up-to-date canning methods. All old canning books contain unreliable information. The better new books cost very little and may be purchased where canning supplies are bought.

12. Do not take the advise of people who recommend either out-of-date or new "trick" ways of canning. These methods are likely to cause trouble, but they may not the first or the second time tried.

13. Remember, oven canning is both unreliable and a dangerous method. Unreliable because the food is likely to spoil. Dangerous because the jars may explode.

Get in the fine-car swim at the low Ford price!

America's favorite convertible is one of 21 Ford models

There's no need to pay a "fancy price" to enjoy fine-car luxury. Ford is lowest priced of the low-price three, yet offers values you'd expect only in cars costing far more!*

To start with, you can easily pay twice the money, and not find lines that can hold a candle to Ford's for lowness, loveliness, or just plain good taste.

But step inside. That's when you'll find the real evidence of Ford's quality!

And, on the way in, note that Ford offers door checks that hold doors open in either of two positions—for easy entrance or exit. A little thing. But, in a fine car, why not? Then, inside, notice how comfortable those plush, foam-rubber seats are. They'll stay that way. And on long trips. For they're scientifically contoured over non-sag springs. Your rear-seat passengers are treated extra kindly, too—with spring assists to help them open and close the doors—with the most leg room in Ford's field!

Fine cars are smooth—and that's another place Ford really shows its stuff!

Ford delivers its famous V-8 power smooth as a whisper. That's because only Ford takes the pains to electronically balance each engine while running under its own power. Not even the makers of the most expensive automobiles get this far to bring you super-smooth performance.

Ford rides fine-car smooth and quiet, too. You can thank the new "Inner Ford" for that. Ford, for instance, has a swept-back front suspension that actually "rolls with the punch" of every road bump.

Ford's rear springs automatically adjust to give the right ride for every road. And Ford keeps things quiet, with the most sound insulation in its field.

Fine cars are built to stay solid. So's Ford!

Ford has the only frame in its field to make use of rugged tubular steel beam strengthening beams. Expensive cars aren't built of thicker body steel or with sounder engineering skill. Then, of course, in Ford you can have all the power assists and other conveniences found in fine cars. And they cost far less in Ford.* Yes sir! In every feature, every part, Ford is the fine car at half the fine-car price. Come in and see!
